Is PeniMaster a Scam?

No complaints are found on consumer complaints websites, and guys are reporting having gotten gains by using this extender, so PeniMaster is certainly not a scam.

Pros

Consumer comments are positive.

The PeniMaster uses a Holding Band made of a soft material to strap down your penis, which makes it quite comfortable to wear. If you desire additional comfort you can get the Silicone Comfort Band as an extra accessory. It wraps around your penis for extra cushioning.

Cons

This product isn't not backed with a "if it doesn't work for you, you get your money back" refund. You can return the product within the first 3 weeks, that's it. And 3 weeks isn't nearly enough time to see noticeable results.

Benefits (as stated on seller website)

- Increase the length of the penis (up to 0.5cm in non-erect state, and 0.75cm while erect)
- Increase the thickness of the penis (up to 1.5cm)
- Significantly decrease penile curvature
- Increase the hardness of erections
- Sexual stamina
- Lead to improved self-esteem

How Does PeniMaster Work?

The human body has a natural ability to adapt under pressure. Some parts of the body can increase in size, when aided. What happens to body builders? What happens to an arm that is constantly exercised? Penis Master uses the principle of traction in elongating the penis.

By applying a minimal level of pressure to the penis, by stretching it over time, its cells breakdown and multiply...leading to increased tissue mass.

The principle explained above is not new, it is ancient and tested. In fact, there are relatively primitive cultures that have leveraged this natural ability of the body to respond to pressure, to elongate body parts like the necks, lips and ear-lobes. These tribes used simple and crude implements to stretch these parts. The Penis Master, however, is a modern product, the culmination of in-depth research, and has been proven to work for myriads.

Hell dude, I got enough to supply me for the next 2 or 3 years! Germans not only make good products but they support them all the way!" - Actual User Feedback from the Betterman Forum
